COURT NEWS

Carey Moreland and Henry Wills, both of Bourbon county, were arrested by Deputy State Game Warden A. W. Bullock, on charges of hunting without a license. They were arraigned before County Judge George Batterton, and fined $23.50 each.

Henry Hawkins, colored, of Paris, was arrested by Lexington police in that city on telephone information from Paris, and was later on brought here by Deputy Sheriff Gibson, and placed in jail. Sheriff Collier and Deputy Gibson visited Hawkins' home in Claysville Sunday afternoon and found a moonshine still and ten gallons of mash. Hawkins was not at home and was located later in Lexington. He was given a hearing in the County Court Tuesday afternoon before County Judge George Batterton, on the charge of having a moonshine still in his possession and manufacturing moonshine whisky. Hawkins claimed the still was in the house when he leased it and that he was not responsible for it. He was held to the grand jury in $500 bond, which he was unable to furnish, and was sent to jail.

In the County Court Wednesday Judge George Batterton appointed Mrs. Ammi Prichard Brown as administrator of the estate of her father, the late Landon J. Fretwell. Mrs. Brown accepted the trust and qualified by furnishing bond in the sum of $5,000, with Denis Dundon as surety.

Tuesday night Sheriff M. Peale Collier and Deputy Sheriff James Gibson paid a visit to a house on Lilliston avenue, alleged to have been occupied by a colored woman named Cooper. After a search of the place it was stated the officers secured two half-pints of liquor and a number of empty bottles. The occupant of the room where the liquor was found was not at home at the time of the visit.

TOBACCO GRADING DEMONSTRATIONS THIS WEEK

Tobacco grading demonstrations for the benefit of the growers of Bourbon will be conducted during the remainder of the week as follows: Friday at Clintonville, barn of Ernest Darnaby; Saturday at Paris, old Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse. Demonstrations will be held twice daily, at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.

About thirty Bourbon county farmers attended the tobacco grading demonstration held Tuesday in the gymnasium of the Bourbon County High School at Millersburg. The grading was done by Mr. McMurry, of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, and the work, which is being done under the auspices of the Bourbon County High School Agricultural Club, was continued at Millersburg Wednesday morning. In the afternoon there was a demonstration at the Letton School, and yesterday at the Center-Hill School. The demonstrations were held twice daily at 10:00 a. m. and 2:00 p. m.

It seems to be human nature to get in a hurry to do something that should be put off until to-morrow.

RELIGIOUS

—Rev. F. W. Eberhardt, of Georgetown, former pastor of the Paris Baptist church, will fill the pulpit of the local church at both morning and evening services Sunday. Rev. ### PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

—The subject for the morning sermon is "The Job of Finishing the Job." At the evening hour the subject will be "The Call of God's Goodness." The quartette of the church, composed of Mrs. Prichard, Miss Hill, Mr. Harbeson and Mr. Fithian, is rendering most delightful music. The musical numbers of each service are a treat. The numbers for Sunday will be given in the Saturday papers. Hours of service: Preaching 10:55 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. Sunday School at 9:30. Men's Bible Class at 10:00 a. m. and Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to worship, at these hours.

PARIS CHRISTIAN CHURCH

—Rev. W. E. Ellis has returned from two weeks' evangelistic services at Glasgow, Ky.

Sunday, November 26, has been designated by the Paris Christian Church for "Every-Member-Canvass Day," which has been the custom at about this season for several years past. All of the officers and about twenty-five laymen will remain at the church building for lunch and to complete final arrangements for this great day's work. Each route will be mapped out in a typewritten form so that one officer assisted by one layman may work each route. This work has always proven very helpful, both to those making the calls, as well as those receiving the callers, so with this feeling of good fellowship the day of November 26 is being looked forward to with a great deal of interest and spiritual zeal.

Christian church Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.; church at 10:45; morning sermon by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Ellis; evening service at 7:00. A Home Mission and Thanksgiving pageant will be given by the Sunday school. The public is cordially invited.

LODGE NOTES

—One of the most enjoyable events in local lodge circles for many months was the social session held in the Knights of Pythias lodge room, in the Wilson building, last night, by the Pythian Sisters, the woman's auxiliary of the K. of P. The big room was comfortably filled at an early hour with members of the order, and of the Knights of Pythias, who were especially invited guests for the occasion. Following the singing of the National anthem by the audience, Rev. J. T. Sharrard pronounced the invocation. The address of welcome was delivered by Hon. James H. Thompson, of Paris, Miss Margaret Cleveland delighted all with a well-rendered violin solo, which was followed by an address by Grand Keeper of Records and Seal J. W. Carter, of Lexington. Miss Lucille Chipley rendered a piano solo, Harry Kerslake sang a vocal solo and a cornet solo by Mr. Caywood, filled out the musical part of the program. Miss Catherine Duncon gave a reading. Addresses were delivered by Rev. J. T. Sharrard, County Attorney David D. Cline, John K. Cahal, and Mrs. Caywood, G. C., of the Pythian Sisters. At the conclusion of the program the guests were served with refreshments of a substantial nature as well as delicacies less substantial, but no less pleasing to the palate.

THE GRIDIRON FIELD

The football teams of the Millersburg Military Institute and the Kentucky Military Institute will meet in a grid battle on the M. M. I. field this afternoon for the first time. It will be in the nature of a homecoming day for former students of the M. M. I., who are to be present, if it is possible for them to do so. A large crowd is expected. Martin, the hard hitting fullback of the M. M. I. team, who has been out of the game for some time, is rounding out in good shape again and will be able to put up a good game for the cadets. Womack and Hunter, backfield men, who were also injured, will be back in the game to-day. Both teams will have full strength in the fray and a great game is in prospect.

The football team of the Western High School, colored, of Paris, has made a splendid showing on the gridiron field this season, having lost but one out of eight games played. At present they are holding leading place among the colored high schools of the State, and are in a fair position to win the trophy which is given next season.

No woman can resist thinking she would have been a success as an actress.

ATTENTION COMMERCIAL CLUB MEMBERS!

The Secretary of the Paris Commercial Club invites the attention of all members to the following:

This afternoon at 2:30 p. m. on Hancock Field, the Paris High School football team will play the Versailles High School Football team. Superintendent Kirkpatrick has invited the 7th and 8th grades from all the rural schools of Bourbon county and sixteen members of the football teams from the County High Schools and the Millersburg Military Institute to attend the game as guests of the Paris High School.

For the benefit of those who have not been attending the gridiron contests between Paris Hi team and opponents; under the direction of Coach James Clay Ward, our High School has developed one of the outstanding football squads of the State of Kentucky. Not "kid" football, but a highly scientific offensive play that would be a credit to many University teams. The business men of Paris have not supported this team with attendance as they should have. Take an hour off this afternoon, go out to Hancock Field and witness a real thrilling football game. Incidentally, a team that has advertised Paris in a most favorable manner throughout the State, deserves your support and attendance.
